

"Circulation Books Open to All"

NEW YORK, SUNDAY, OCTOBER 1, 1893.

ONE DAY AS A NEW YORK FLOWER-GIRL.

Dolores Marbourg Sells Roses in the Streets—Lillian Russell Tells Her to Get Out of the Way, and Mr. Oliver Sumner Teall Holds Her Hand.

Just within the shelter of the entrance of a Broadway haberdashery an old woman sells flowers.

Forist, and will accomplish it by subsidizing the nurse.
